The Vittore Branca Center

The Vittore Branca International Center for the Study of Italian Culture offers the opportunity for interdisciplinary exchanges with fellow scholars attending the Center as well as with the academic community at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini.

Facilities and benefits include:

- Libraries and Photo Library at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini, specialized in art history, Venetian history, literature, musicology, dance, drama, early printed books, comparative cultures and spiritualities. Libraries have wi-fi connection. Vittore Branca Center scholars can enjoy advice by specialists, they can choose a working place and they have the possibility of borrowing books
- Cultural events (seminars, conferences, exhibitions, concerts) organized by the Fondazione Giorgio Cini. Residents thus have the opportunity to explore the broader background to their own work.
- The Residence - situated in the grounds of the Island, the Residence can accommodate around 90 scholars in self-catering mini-apartments with a telephone, wi-fi connection to Internet and shared laundry services. Kitchen facilities enable residents to economize on food expenses. The Residence is also equipped with reception, surveillance and cleaning services. To encourage social life and exchanges of ideas, there are a number of shared spaces for use by all guests: living room, music room, fitness area and terrace.
- Tutors to assist scholarship holders in becoming familiar with the Island and its documentary and artistic heritage as well as offering guidance about the cultural offering of the Fondazione Giorgio Cini and the city of Venice.

Scholarship holders shall

- Stay in the Vittore Branca Center Residence for two consecutive months in a chosen period from January to December 2027. Trips for research purposes shall be documented in writing in advance.

- Present their research project to the academic community at the Fondazione and attend all presentations of other scholarship holders' research projects during their residency.
- Report regularly to their tutor on research work in progress and submit a written report on the status of their research project at the end of their research residency.
- Mention the scholarship, using the exact wording, in their curriculum vitae and in any publications associated with their research at the Vittore Branca Center of the Fondazione Cini.

How to apply and selection

Candidates shall send their scholarship application, complete with the required documents (see below), in .pdf version to: centrobranca@cini.it. by June 30, 2026 (online applications will be considered as valid if received by 11.59 PM on June 30, 2026).
